

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

The government must try to remember what ethics are. We The People elect (until recently, I suppose) our leaders/lawmakers to act in the best interest of the general public. Needless to say, special favors to very rich and powerful conglomerates shirks this responsibility. When you act, do so carefully and with the good of the Country in mind.
